Young People and Social Change: Illuminating the Connections between Children/Youth Studies and Development Studies

Discussion introduced by Roy Huijsmans (Institute of Social Studies)

To a large degree, children & youth studies and development studies constitute two separate communities of scholars with their own bodies of literature. This seminar is dedicated to a discussion on how both fields of study could find a meaningful collaboration and joint inspiration.

The Anthropology of Children Working Group (based at VU University, Amsterdam) brings together academics and practitioners engaged in research and work with children. Through monthly seminars, the Working Group promotes child-oriented theory, methodology, and research ethics. Besides, it serves as a platform for (interdisciplinary) academic research and it enhances dialogue with practitioners through joint research projects, publications and conferences.

Convenor / Dr Sandra J.T.M. Evers, Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology, VU University Amsterdam.
