

International Research Seminar

In 2002, the International Research Seminars included presentations by Stein Kuhnle (Bergen - Norway), Klaus Armingeon (Bern - Switzerland), Beate Kohler-Koch (Mannheim - Germany), Stefano Guzzini (Copenhagen - Denmark), Philippe Schmitter (EUI Florence - Italy), Jan-Erik Lane (Geneva – Switzerland), Ed Page (LSE London – United Kingdom), Michael Zürn (Bremen - Germany), Dietmar Braun (Lausanne - Switzerland), Liesbet Hooghe (North Carolina - USA), and Gary Marks (North Carolina - USA).

In 2003, the International Research Seminars included presentations by Harold Wilensky (Berkeley – USA), Frank Castles (Edinburgh – UK), Hans-Jürgen Bieling (Marburg – Germany), Colin Hay (Birmingham – UK), and Jan-Aart Scholte (Warwick – UK).

In 2004, the International Research Seminars included presentations by Tanja Börzel and Thomas Risse (Heidelberg & Berlin – Germany), Bob Jessop (Lancaster – UK), David Cameron (Yale – USA), Ian Budge (Essex – UK), Simon Hix (LSE – UK), Gerald Schneider (Konstanz – Germany), James Caporaso (Washington – USA), and Adrienne Héritier (EUI Florence – Italy).

In 2005, the International Research Seminars included presentations by Jean-Christophe Graz (Lausanne - Switzerland), Kris Deschouwer (Brussels - Belgium), Manfred Schmidt (Heidelberg - Germany), Magnus Ryner (Birmingham - UK), John Stephens and Evelyne Huber (Chapel Hill - USA), Philip Manow (Max Planck Institut Cologne - Germany), Klaus-Dieter Wolf (Darmstadt - Germany), Paul Taggart (Sussex - UK), Pieter Vanhuysse (Haifa - Israel).